

Ceremony Vow Options

Traditional Declaration of Consent: (Known as the “I do’s”)

TO THE GROOM: _____, do you take _____ to be your true and wedded wife; and do you promise to love her, comfort her, honor and keep her in sickness and in health and forsaking all others, to be faithful to her as long as you both shall live?

TO THE BRIDE: _____, do you take _____ to be your true and wedded husband; and do you promise to love him, comfort him, honor and keep him in sickness and in health and forsaking all others, to be faithful to him as long as you both shall live?

Modified Declaration of Consent:

TO THE GROOM: _____, do you pledge to love
_____ and throughout your years together to be honest, faithful and kind to her. Do you pledge to give to her the same happiness she gives to you, and to respect her for who she is?

TO THE BRIDE: _____, do you pledge to love
_____ and throughout your years together to be honest, faithful and kind to him? Do you pledge to give to him the same happiness he gives to you, and to respect him for who he is?

Traditional Wedding Vows: (Traditional words of commitment that you may choose to say to each other) Groom to repeat first followed by the Bride:

I, _____, take you _____ to be my lawful wedded wife/husband...to have and to hold...from this day forward...for better or worse...for richer, for poorer...in sickness and in health...to love and to cherish...till death do us part...I pledge my faithfulness.

Modified Wedding Vows: (Words of commitment expressed in a modern way)

TO THE GROOM:

Do you take to be your wife and partner in life’s journey?
Do you promise above all else to live in truth with her and communicate openly
and fearlessly?
Do you give your hand and your heart as a sanctuary of warmth and peace?
Do you pledge your love, devotion, loyalty, faithfulness, compassion and friendship as you join your life with her? “I Do”

TO THE BRIDE:

Do you take to be your husband and partner in life’s journey?
Do you promise above all else to live in truth with him and communicate openly
and fearlessly?
